

Books to Check Out—Religious

More books under Holidays.

An excellent board book with great photos depicting the animals, culture, clothes, food & plants of the Bible. Includes counting, comparing, colors, shapes, opposites, sizes, and relative size words. Hugely valuable to help kids have a feel for the Bible, and something to picture in their minds.

A picture book for toddlers about Jesus created by ST. Pictures from magazines, text by Susan Ternyey. "Jesus was a baby" "Jesus was a boy" "Jesus helped his dad" . . . etc. Simple sentences, relating especially to a little boy, and telling the life, death, & resurrection of Jesus (including "Jesus' friends were sad" "Jesus' friends were glad" . . .)

Board book. All-encompassing story of the life & role of Jesus Christ told in simple terms, mostly one sentence per page (in nice large font, with scriptural references), and charming illustrations.

Great works of art depicting the Savior in this board book. Simple reassuring text about the Savior accompanies each full page picture.

I have collected pictures from the life of Jesus Christ—great art from magazines, calendars, collections (such as Gospel Art Kits, and used church manuals), and a few printed from art collections available online (which takes a lot of ink)—and when the grandkids were old enough to cut and paste, we made books of them with binders and sheet covers—one page/story each week. You can simply mount the pictures, or include a caption or short summary of the story, and I always like to include the scripture reference. You can tell them the stories of Jesus, or let them tell you or younger siblings the stories of Jesus. Very helpful for church classes as well.

Stories and Miracles of Jesus. Spanish. However, those who know the scriptures well will be able to tell the stories from the pictures, without having to know Spanish.

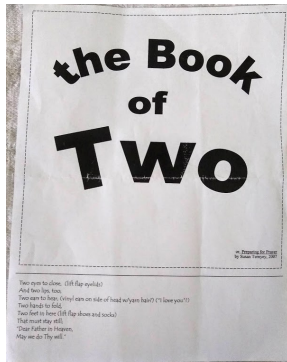

Board Book—semi realistic illustrations for the song of the same name: “Jesus wants me for a sunbeam, to shine for Him each day...”

Board Book—simple text, similes explaining the Holy Spirit: like a dove, the wind, a book, light, star, rose, seashell, umbrella, and a blanket. Warm feelings.

Begins, "Some answers are very loud—like when you ask your mom if you can have a pet snake."—big illustration of rather shocked-looking mom, with kid holding snake up to show her. Continues with soft answers in library, silent answers when folks move over for you, etc. Different situations, different feelings explored, and in the end, answers from God.

Activity book by ST
 "Two eyes to close (lift flap eyelids)
 And two lips, too;
 Two ears to hear, (vinly ears on side of head w/yarn hair,
 Speech bubble wi/"I Love You"?)
 Two hands to fold,
 Two feet in here (shoelace shoes & socks reveal feet?)
 That must stay still;
 'Dear Father in Heaven,
 May we do Thy will."

Fabric activity book by ST: Flashlight goes with first page, Let there be light; then match plants with seeds, symbols of 4 seasons in clear pockets; sea creatures in watery fabric pocket; birds of various colors to name; count the animals (up to 20) in a forest scene, man and woman (braid her hair).

Fabric activity book by ST: Front and back covers shown, pocket has a little car to drive through town to church. Button shirt, zip pants, buckle belt, tie shoe, clip on tie, clear pocket with comb/mirror/fake teeth to brush w/just toothbrush;

Fabric activity book by ST: children's church songs— 1. If you chance to meet a frown (face turns on button nose), 2. popcorn popping on apricot tree (Velcro blossoms), 3. in the leafy tree tops, 4. head-shoulders-knees-&-toes, 5. happy family zipper home, 6. Jesus wants me for a sunbeam...13. give said little stream 14. once a snowman.