

Books to Check Out—the Art of Seeing

Using clouds, helps learn the art of seeing/imagining. DRA reading level 7-8, first grade. But use as a read aloud for younger kids, and then go look up at the clouds!

Is it a duck, or is it a rabbit? Sometimes it's all in the eye of the beholder. Expand your vision to include other points of view, and what more can you gain from looking further.

Some eye-opening art books.

A few of the kinds of Art books you might include in your home library, or check out at the public library for browsing and engaging conversation.
